Colt Character

Student behavior is a growing concern in Creston School. As a school, we want to help you learn positive behaviors. Creston School is participating in a very important program, “Colt Character”. We are using this program to help all of our students have a safe, positive learning environment and to provide consistency of expectations in all areas of our school.

Classroom Incentives

Students will receive COLT CHARACTER tickets “horseshoes” when they are caught meeting expectations.

After a class has been awarded 30 horseshoes, the class will earn an incentive to be decided by the teacher. (pajama day, stuffed animal to school, etc.)

One class incentive will equal 1 school wide horseshoe. Once the school earns 30 horseshoes, there will be a school wide incentive chosen by PBIS team. (popsicles, extra recess, etc.)

School-wide Incentives

To be eligible to participate in the schoolwide incentive, the student must have less than 5 behavioral detentions, 5 minors, or 1 major during the quarter. Students with more than 5 behavioral detentions, 5 minors, or 1 major will be sent to an alternate location for the duration of the incentive. (a dance, extra recess, popcorn, ice cream, popsicles, etc.).

Behavior Flow Chart (Minors)

- First offense- verbal reminder
- Second offense- rectification and/or reflection
 - Think sheet, fix it, apologize, redo it, etc.
- Third offense- disciplinary action with parent notification (phone call and/or letter)
 - loss of privilege, time-out, detention, etc.
- Fourth offense- disciplinary action with parent conference
 - loss of privilege, time-out, detention, etc.
- Fifth offense- administrative intervention (ODR-major behavior)
